

Spring Nationals on Real Bridge 14-24 October 2021

Thursday 14 August

Welcome

It's been two long years since the last Spring Nats.

We were expecting to be back at Canterbury Racecourse by now, but a national event on RealBridge is a fine alternative.

We will miss having cards in our hands and chatting with friends about enemies but there are real compensations.

Convener Ian Lisle lists a few:

- No travel costs or parking problems
- Private food and beverage service
- Personal bar tab after the game
- No accommodation costs for interstate or country players

Another "benefit", compared to faceto-face, comes courtesy of The Police:

Every breath you take And every move you make Every bond you break Every step you take I'll be watching you

Not me of course. It's your partner who will be able to sift through your actions. Indefinitely.

Real Bridge tips

You are required to keep your camera and microphone active at all times. (Having said that, some people have intermittent connection or hardware issues, so you might not see or hear them)

It's fine to mute yourself, to reduce environmental sound effects. Just remember to unmute to answer a question. "You're on mute!"

You can do the same to an opponent, or both if they go in for lengthy post mortems.

Post your system card at the start of each match. A basic minimum would be something like:

2/1, 15-17, $1 \ge 2 + \text{ transfer responses}$, $2 \diamondsuit$ multi, UDCA, 4ths.

You would like to add more but not too much. The problem is the RealBridge chat format, which compresses text into one big clump, obscuring details.

Margaret Bourke Teams

There were 30 teams in this invitational event, half from overseas. Winners were Sophie Ashton - Maurits van der Vlugt Dave Wiltshire - Ellena Moskovsky Sartai Hans - Avi Kanetkar

Here is a hand from an early match, against an Indonesian team:

0
W/EW	秦 7 5	754
	🔻 K 8	653
	🔶 96	5
	📥 86
🔺 A J 9	8	٠	K 10 3
💙 Q 2		•	A
🔶 J 8 4		•	A 10 3 2
🕭 K Q 5	4	*	A J 10 9 2
	🏚 Q 6	2
♥ J 10 9 7 4
	♦ KQ	7

Wiltshire	Asbi	Moskov	skyBojoh
1♣	no	2 📥 ^A	no
2NT	no	3♦	no
3♠	no	5NT	no
6♣	end

Not a great spot. North led a heart. Wiltshire picked up South's riangle Q, stripped the majors, then led a diamond to dummy's 10 and South's king.

On the forced \blacklozenge 7 return, declarer had to guess whether to play eight or jack and went with the odds, slotting the \blacklozenge 8 for one off.

There was a consolation event - the Ted Chadwick Cup - for the teams that didn't make the semis, won by

Tadashi Teramoto - Hiroshi Kaku Kazuo Furuta - Hiroki Yokoi Kyoko Shimamura - Masaaki Takayama

Looking back

We all met at Canterbury Racecourse in November 2019. Here are some results:

Open Teams (68 teams) Ian Thomson - Ron Klinger Paul Dalley - Ashley Bach

Cummings Open Pairs (127 prs) Sartaj Hans - Avinash Kanetkar

Women's Teams (22 teams) Marianne Bookallil - Jodi Tutty Sophie Ashton - Lauren Travis

Seniors' Teams (16 teams)

Peter Buchen - George Smolanko David Beauchamp - Mike Hughes Ian Thomson - Ron Klinger

Concerning these last two, the NSWBA Events Committee firmly believes that players do not want to sit in front of a computer for 10-14 days straight to play bridge.

Hence a decision was made to space out the events and to offer those we thought would attract the biggest entries. Both Seniors' and Women's events have been declining in popularity, even as f2f events, and have limited fields.

Note that the top women's teams in the Open Teams can earn play-off points.

Basically, I will be perusing the boards after the day's play, looking for noteworthy results, guessing about the meanings of bids and plays.

If your partner or one of your opponents does something interesting, please text or email the details to me.

UNDOs

There seem to be more mis-clicks with RealBridge as compared to BBO, particularly if you are playing on a tablet. (Get a laptop!)

You can minimise this by choosing the option to confirm bids and plays, though that is cumbersome.

By all means request an Undo for a misclick and call the director if your opponents reject. Just don't make a habit of it.

Alerts

Just click the <Alert> strip and wait. Any alerted bids will show a red shading.

Alerting is the same as face-to-face, so alert partner's artificial and unusual calls but not doubles, cuebids or calls beyond 3NT. (With some in this last group you would offer to explain at the end of the auction, if your side is declaring)

Online results

Results on the RealBridge website are provisional only. The official results for the competition will be at www.abfevents.com.au/events/ results/reults.asp?yr=2021&dir=sn

The first round draw in the teams events will be random.

Cash Prizes

A plus for running events online is saving money on stuff like venue hire, board dealing, transport, equipment and extra staff.

A good chunk of that saving has been diverted to cash prizes, with particular thanks to our generous sponsors.

Meanwhile in America

They are back to face-to-face over there. Their major events are run on LoveBridge, featuring screens and four people at the table, each with a tablet for bids, play and chat. Try https://vugraph.lovebridge.com
