Eligibility for the NOT quarter final and semi finalists to drop into the Mixed Matchpoint Pairs

English is such a confusing language

by Stephen Lester

Looking semi official with my NZBridge shirt today, a gentleman approached me at 8.30 am to ask where the Presentation was to take place. I told him that it was Day 1 of a two-day event, so the presentations wouldn't be held until after play had finished.

He looked at me rather oddly: luckily for him, he found a real director who told us that Sartaj Hans would be speaking in the break room at 8.45.

I must be very literal - this is what the dictionary has to say:

presentation (noun)

the giving of something to someone, especially as part of a formal ceremony:

the presentation of certificates to new members

Sartaj's presentation was incisive and well-received. In it he answered questions about some of the more interesting deals from yesterday's TBIB Swiss Pairs, and gently he gave instruction about better methods to deal with both the contested and uncontested auction.

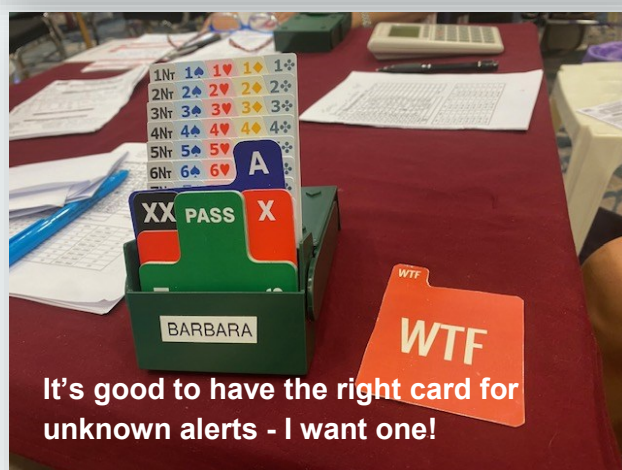

To be eligible the players must have a paid entry in the Mixed Matchpoint Pairs

A losing quarterfinalist can drop into Day 2 of the Mixed Matchpoint Pairs with the partner they entered the Mixed Matchpoint Pairs even if that player was not in the NOT.

A losing semi finalist can only drop in as a pair that played at least two sets in the NOT semi final.

I don't often avail myself of the speaking sessions made available, so I urge you to attend them if you can. Andy Hung will be talking (or presenting, should I say) on Tuesday morning; don't miss the presentation.

The 10 Resolutions Bridge Players Will Not Keep in 2024

At the beginning of each new year, many of us make promises and resolutions that we often fail to fulfil. Here is a compilation of the bridge promises we have observed bridge players consistently struggle to keep:

1. Commit to consistently reading system notes before each game.
2. Refrain from wearing bridge-related apparel in daily life so the world understands that they are different (and superior).
3. Avoid resorting to luck-related excuses to justify poor results.
4. Stop believing that adopting the latest sophisticated convention favoured by champions will automatically elevate one to champion status.
5. Embrace a genuinely chill (and pleasant!) demeanour during friendly duplicate games.
6. Never allow thoughts of the previous hand to intrude while playing the current one.
7. Make it a golden rule to ALWAYS be kind to your partner.
8. Resist the urge to wish for an early end to an event when things are going well.
9. Abandon the practice of soliciting the entire planet to find someone who agrees with your (clearly mistaken) actions.
10. Keep up the habit of always counting the distributions and points.

No more overthinking (right!)

Yesterday I saw a guy wearing a T shirt that I loved. It said "Hang on while I overthink this".

Often a problem of mine and I most definitely put it in practice here.....

2♥	dbl	4♣	4♠
5♥	pass	pass	5♠
dbl	all pass

My first mistake was passing 5♠ doubled. With such extreme shape I should probably have just bid 6♥ but I didn't, thinking we might be off two aces. So now how do you beat 5♠ doubled?

With my club void I thought (the next mistake!) that I might need to get a club ruff. And surely partner has ♥Q, given he has bid 2♥ and 5♥? Yes, you've guessed it - I tried to be a hero and underled my hearts, allowing the stiff ♥Q to score in dummy! So here we are about to score -650 instead of +980 for making 6♥.

But the story doesn't end there! Declarer lead a trump and partner, who didn't bat an eyelid when ♥Q scored, did just as well by playing low smoothly and declarer duly played ♠10 losing to my singleton jack! With partner's ♠AK we were back to +100 but definitely not with the three tricks you would expect.....

Unsurprising there were several +1210's floating around (6♥ doubled making) so we still lost a fair bit on the board but not nearly as bad as it might have been - and with a much better story!

Andrew and Nikki about to embark to the Rex.

When I saw Nikki this morning, she asked whether I could find it in my heart to mention ex-husband George Riszko. She and George are still good friends, and one of his fondest memories is the following:

Congratulations to the 2002
 Australian Seniors Representative Bridge Team
 Mike Hughes - Barbara McDonald
 Zolli Nagy - Tim Seres
 Hashmat Ali - George Riszko

An illustrious team indeed!

Not right to pass this time!

2023 Youth Awards

In hibernation due to Covid-19, it was great to see the awards being presented at the Youth Week venue on Thursday.

The Andrew Reiner Trophy is granted to the best performed pair in the primary target international event, taking account of performance in the event itself, commitment and preparation and contribution to team success.

Winners for 2023 are Jack Luke-Paredi and George Bartley.

The international event was the Netherlands (see Tober Libman's T-shirt).

The Hills-Hurley Trophy, awarded to Alexis Wilsmore and Jade Wilkinson is intended to encourage young bridge players to form long-standing partnerships and reward a successful pair who has developed a well-organised partnership to harness their full potential.

The Helman-Klinger Achievement Award for the Australian Youth Bridge Player whose ability, achievements, sportsmanship, attitude, contribution and commitment during the calendar year are most deservingly went to Kate McDonald.
